Legal Ombudsman Complaint Form

What did the service provider say in their response to your complaint?

If your complaint was made by email or letter, please send us a copy of your complaint together with copies of any responses received. Please do not send us any other information at this time; we will let you know if we need any more evidence from you.

What effect has the service provider's service had on you? This could be anything from feeling upset or embarrassed, missing out on something important to you, or even losing money.

What would put things right for you?

If we do think there has been a problem with the service you have received from your service provider, then our aim is to help put things right. This could be an apology, the return of files or completing the work. We have no powers to discipline or fine service providers but in some cases we might decide that some compensation will help to put things right.

Have you made a complaint before to us or anyone else about this matter? If yes, who did you complaint to?

If you have; when did you complain before? Please provide the full date or dates.

Before sending this form to us, please make sure you have completed all areas, and then signed and dated the form below:

Important things to know about how we handle your information

Calls are recorded, including calls you make to us, calls we make to you as well as calls to other people and organisations.

We will need to handle personal details about you which could include sensitive information.

We will need to share information we consider relevant about your complaint with the service provider and with their approved regulator.

We use information from the complaints that come to us to improve our service, and to help shape how we work and our policies. We may share information about this case, including your contact details, with carefully selected third parties for research purposes, such as customer satisfaction surveys. If you do not want us to share this information, or to be contacted for these purposes, please let us know.

We publish data about all cases that require an ombudsman's decision, including the name of the service provider, the decision of the ombudsman and the area of law. We will not publish your name or personal details. Further information can be found in the 'Data and decisions' area of our website.

We comply with data protection rules at all times. You can contact our dedicated team (compliance@legalombudsman.org.uk) for further information about this and any freedom of information requests.

All documents you send to us will be scanned on to our computer system and then destroyed after 28 days. Case related information that is stored electronically will usually be deleted 18 months after the case file is closed.

Please do not send us original documents unless we ask you to. If we do ask you to send us original documents, we will keep them safe and return them to you.
